ANNUAL SKIT

The Annual Staff began its sales campaign with the presentation of a skit in Assembly on October 23, 1953, the title of which was "The Coronation Procession of King Demon."

Nancy Bane, the commentator, on TV Channel '54, Station DEMON, gave an enthusiastic and colorful presentation of the parade as it was televised before the CHS student body.

The Procession consisted of the following:

Queen Editor—CAROLE HAWLEY

Train Bearers— { PATSY BLOUNT
 { ANNA HUFF

Queen's Lady in Waiting—ERNESTINE STOLTZ

The Queen Mother—BETSY JONES

Little Prince "Imp"—BILL WADDELL

Court Jester—JIMMY MENSCH

Four Royal Princesses— { BETTY MORRIS
 { JANE CARSON
 { SUE SPENCE

 { ZELDA LIVELY

A Duke—CAROLYN FRANCISCO

Arch Bishop of Demonland—GINGER BIRD

The Prime Minister—JUANITA JENNINGS

A Page—DOROTHY WOOLWINE

Last in the Procession, King Demon, wearing a crown, was brought forward riding in his elaborately decorated carriage and driven by his most trusted coachman, Wardie Grayson. As he approached, he was hailed by all with, "LONG LIVE KING DEMON."

ANNUAL PROJECTS

1. Voting for the Staff
2. Counting the Votes
3. Autographing Annuals
4. Selecting a Cover
5. Voting on the Cover

From the day the Senior Class voted for the staff until our annuals arrived in the spring, our days were filled with planning and work. In addition to the above pictured projects, we typed copy, mounted pictures, named pictures, proofread until we were practically blind, walked miles in securing advertisements, argued over grey spaces and matching print.

Although it meant hard work, there was an equal amount of fun.

We are proud of what we have accomplished as we realize that it was worth the effort.

THE DEMON '54

DEDICATION

As an advisor, she has always been ready with understanding and patience—As an individual, she has been gracious and lovely—

It is an effort to express our appreciation of all that she has done for us that we dedicate this, the 1954 DEMON to—Mrs. Lala Brightwell.

FOREWORD

Because of the increasing demand, both on a National and a Local level, for larger and better equipped school buildings, and since the present building program is the dominant concern of the public in general, we, the members of the staff, thought it fitting to choose as our Theme "PROGRESS IN EDUCATION." Thus we are showing Educational Buildings of the Past, the Present and a Glimpse into the Future.

The End Sheets cover the History of School Buildings in Christiansburg from the first old Log School House to a View of those that are to be.

The Divider Pages reflect the activities carried on in various parts of our present plant, each in keeping with education as we have seen it this year.

Also, we have used Shadow Print to suggest continued Progress in the Future.

STANDING: Mr. A. M. Weikel, Alleghany District; Mr. Gilbert Linkous, Blacksburg District; Mr. Gray Altizer, Auburn District.

MIR. EVANS L. KING, Principal

For many years, in varied positions, Mr. King has been an integral part of Christiansburg High School.

He attended C. H. S. and was a member of the graduating class of 1930.

After graduating from Emory and Henry College and receiving his Degree of Master of Arts from Columbia University, he returned to C. H. S. as its principal for the session 1940-41.

At the close of the session, he entered the Air Corps and served in the United States and overseas for somewhat over three years.

In the fall of 1945 Mr. King came back to C. H. S. and served in the capacity of a teacher until 1949.

Again in the fall of 1949, he accepted the position as Principal and has rendered most able and gratifying service to the community and the school.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our Freshman year at C. H. S. had come at last. Some were dreading it; some were glad; some didn't care one way or another. After we walked down the halls shyly looking at all the big upperclassmen, we felt even smaller than we were. Then came the classes—everyone asking everyone else where to go and no one had the answer.

After many months we got the hang of things. We began to meet new people and gradually began to learn more.

The only real project during this year at C. H. S. that seemed to interest us was Stunt Night in which we won Honorable Mention. This seemed to build up our hopes for something better in the future. When the year finally came to a close, most of us realized we were now one step forward. We were Sophomores.

Many unusual and interesting things happened in Miss Domazets's English Class which we feel might be better omitted from our History.

After a very joyful vacation, we returned to our old stomping ground. This time we were the big Sophomores watching the confused Freshmen.

Since we were Sophomores, we could belong to the clubs and join in more activities. We won Second Prize on the float that we entered in the Homecoming Parade. We also won another Honorable Mention on our Stunt. This gave us a big start for all the activities of our Junior Year. We were determined to keep our good record.

Officers for the year were: President—Nancy Bane, Vice President—Mike Miller, Secretary—Anna Huff, Treasurer—Roger Goodson, and Reporter—Jane Knowles.

September finally rolled around again and we entered the halls of C. H. S. looking forward to being the best Junior class in the History of C. H. S.

Our first big task, the publishing of the "Demon Highlights," was a much bigger job than we expected. Anna Huff did an excellent job as Editor. We were proud of our paper.

We held a class meeting and elected as our President—Mike Miller, Vice President—Bill Waddell, Secretary—Kenneth Nixon, Treasurer—Sue Plummer, and Reporter—J. C. Oliver.

For our stunt this year we once again received Honorable Mention. Our Minstrel and Junior Play, "Mama's Baby Boy," were both great successes.

Then came the moment we had been waiting for—our rings had come. We had a wonderful Ring Dance at which time Bill Waddell and Nancy Bane were chosen Sweethearts by popular vote of the class.

Our next big thrill came when we gave the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance at the Governor Tyler Hotel. Our theme was "Land of Enchantment." Everyone seemed to have a big time, and left feeling that it was the best Junior-Senior we had ever had.

We were sorry to come to the close of our Junior year. But all of us looked forward to being "proud" Seniors.

Now comes our Senior year. The year for which we have all been waiting.

Our biggest project is our Annual, "THE DEMON," of which we are all very proud. It has taken up a lot of time and caused many headaches but we feel the time has been well spent.

Some of us worked hard to sell Christmas cards so that we might leave a nice gift to our school.

Another important project which required a great deal of work was the Senior play, "A Feudin' Over Yonder." We enjoyed practicing and giving it. The play was very successful.

At last we rose above past records and won second place on our stunt.

Our slate of officers for our closing year was President—Wardie Grayson, Vice President—Donald Bennett, Secretary—Curtis Parker, Treasurer—Charles Belcher, and Reporter—Ann Shell.

We, the Class of '54, feel that we have made our History at C. H. S. a worth-while one. All of us recall fondly the memories of past years and close with tears in our eyes wishing these happy moments could be relived.

The Student Cooperative Association serves as the coordinating head of all clubs' activities and major school projects. Every student is a member and each home room has a representative on the council.

This has been a very busy and active year. Every two weeks a radio program has been given; a mock election was held; members managed the Red Cross and T. B. Drives; bought a filing cabinet for the Student Room; cared for building and grounds; and made an appeal to the Civic Clubs for a Recreational Center.

The Tri-Hi-Y is a division of the Y. W. C. A. The purpose of the Club is to find the needs of girls in growing toward Christian responsibility.

The program consists of meeting once a month with an outside speaker; attending as a body the various churches in the community once a month; sponsoring a Good Sportsmanship Campaign and a Clean Scholarship Drive; presenting the Christmas Pageant as well as a Thanksgiving and Easter Assembly Program.

The social side of life is not neglected as the Club sponsors a Spring Carnival and a Banquet and Dance.

The Club sends a delegate to the State Convention and endeavors through worship, work and fellowship to develop strong Christian character.

These two clubs offer training in retailing and provide part-time job training in occupations.

The two clubs have as a joint project managing the school store.

During the year they visited a number of plants and large department stores in surrounding communities. They send representatives to the State Conventions in Richmond annually.

They repaired and decorated the boys' dressing room and showers; operated a concession stand at basketball games and decorated a Halloween Window and float for the Christmas Parade. The crowning feature was the Employer-Employee Banquet at the close of school.

"Y" CLUBS' BANQUET AND DANCE

May 22, 1953

The boys of the Hi-Y and the girls of the Tri-Hi-Y entertained the members of the two clubs and the Faculty with a banquet at Collier House on May 22.

The following program was presented:

KENNETH NIXON.....Toastmaster
MILDRED UNDERWOOD.....Invocation

DIANE SHAFER.....Welcome
LOUISE HAYMAKER....Appropriate Theme Songs

Following the Banquet, the Dance was enjoyed in the C. H. S. gym which was beautifully decorated with white and pastel streamers extending from trees which were placed at the four corners of the gym, and other streamers falling from the center of the ceiling.

It will be remembered as one of the happiest occasions of this school year.

The motif of spring was carried out in decorations for both the dance and banquet. The club members and their dates danced to dreamy music.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AND PROM

May 15, 1953

The Junior Class honored the Senior Class, the Faculty and the School Officials in the Ballroom of the Governor Tyler Hotel on May 15.

WARDIE GRAYSON.....	Invocation	GEORGENE HODGE.....	Response
CAROLE HAWLEY.....	Welcome	PATSY BLOUNT.....	Memories from Fairyland
MR. KING.....	Accomplishments of the Senior Class

The Seniors were given attractive gifts and each member of the Faculty received a miniature garden tool.

This banquet and prom will be a happy memory for all who were present.

Dimmed lights—corsages—evening gowns—bevy of beauties and handsome escorts—soft music—couples spotlighted in the dance—these are reflected in the pictures of this memorable occasion.

JUNIOR RING DANCE

March 16, 1953

On the evening of March 16, the C. H. S. Gym, decorated in pastel streamers with a large ring of gold set with a blue stone standing in the center and a colorful wishing well at the entrance, made a beautiful setting for the Annual Junior Ring Dance.

On entering the Gym, a vote was cast by each member of the Junior Class for the purpose of choosing a King and Queen to reign over the Dance.

After the figure was finished the results of the voting were announced.

At intermission refreshments were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Howard Bane, Mrs. Fred Blount, Mrs. Ann Carson, Mrs. Everett Hawley, Mrs. Cecil Huff, Mrs. Andrew Miller and Mrs. J. H. Spence.

SPRING FESTIVAL

April 28, 1953

The Hi-Y Clubs of C. H. S. sponsored a Spring Carnival on Tuesday evening, April 28.

David Gray acted as the official announcer for the various amusements which were prepared for the crowd.

The Bingo games and the Cake Walks were two of the most popular phases of entertainment. Frances Roberts, with her Fortune Teller, had a very busy and interesting corner.

A Bowling Alley was run by Mary Blair Slusher, Nancy Bane, Mollie Miller and Vicki Dickerson.

A popular Dart Throwing Booth was managed by J. C. Oliver and Mike Miller. There were a number of other stalls with games of chance.

Valuable Door Prizes were given and other nice prizes, donated by the local merchants, were won at all the entertainment bazaars.

Also, there was an attractive Café where one was able to get refreshments.

The Festival, as a whole, was a great success and an unusually large crowd enjoyed the occasion.

ABOVE, CAST OF CHARACTERS (as pictured)

BELOW, A SCENE FROM THE PLAY

MRS. HELEN PAYNE } Directors
MISS MARGARET WEAVER }
HAZEL KINCAID.....Student Director

SYNOPSIS: A very attractive widow, about 40, who has an 18-year-old son, dresses him as a youth of 13, so that she might pass as a younger woman and marry a widower, whom she believes to be wealthy.

In turn, the widower, trying to appear younger, has his 17-year-old daughter pose as a girl of 12, so that he might wed the widow, whom he believes to be rich.

Neither has a cent, both having lost their money in the Stock Market. Many complications arise when both try to keep this knowledge from the other.

The boy's grandmother also appears in a ridiculously youthful costume. When Shepherd McLean's friends see him, they, too, dress up in youthful fashion to tease him.

Everything eventually works out, when the widower and the widow learn that their stock is rising and the deception on both sides is discovered.

The entire play was full of laughs and was a definite success.

"A FEUDIN' OVER YONDER"

Presented by the Senior Class

December 11, 1953

MUSICIANS: Nancy Bishop, Eloise Bratton, Betty Loar, Helen Grubb, Lockie Jo Nolan, Vicki Dickerson, Bobby Lytton, Charles Belcher, Judy Chrisman, Charles Akers, Kenneth Epperly, Ray Lytton.

SYNOPSIS: The plot revolves around the Popoff family and the Fry family who have been feuding for years because one of the Popoff boys said he was going to shoot an "old skonk" and accidentally shot Paw Fry. Rosie Belle Fry, being handy with a gun, takes the only unattached male in the hills from under sister Emmy's nose. Mountain Maggie, who is always nursing someone hurt in the feud, helps Emmy get one of the Popoff boys. She also tricks Maw Fry and Pappy Popoff into thinking that she gave them a "love potion." They find this out and the feud begins over again. But soon, the Traveling Preacher Woman arrives and causes a lot of excitement in her annual visit for she performs four weddings. There are wedding guests and mountain music galore and of course the feud is ended.

The entire cast displayed excellent dramatic ability and the comedy parts were done exceptionally well.

OPEN HOUSE

December 10, 1953

The Faculty of Christiansburg annually entertains the Patrons and Friends of the school with an Open House which, this year, was held at the school on December 10, from 8:00 to 10:00 P. M.

Ann Shell and Dorothy Woolwine were at the registration desk. After the guests registered, the hostesses, Jane Carson, Juanita Jennings, and Trudy Simpkins, directed them to the class rooms where they were welcomed by the members of the faculty.

From there, they were taken to the Home Economics Department which was gayly decorated in Christmas greens and ornaments. Lynn Adair presided at the punch bowl and was assisted in serving refreshments by Emma Lee Waddell, Charlsie Dowdy, and Mrs. Mason.

Between 150 and 200 guests called during the evening.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

JULY 12-18, 1953

Those pictured above represented C. H. S. at Old Dominion Boys' State and Virginia Girls' State which are programs sponsored annually by the Virginia Department of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary providing practical application of Americanism and good citizenship.

These programs provide a week's training in citizenship for the boys and girls of the Junior Class of the high schools of the State and they afford an opportunity to live together as self-governing citizens. Each citizen is assigned membership in one of the eight mythical cities and one of the two political parties. Practical training and actual participation in Local and State Government is given. In addition, a well-planned recreational program is furnished throughout the week.

The local civic organizations sponsor these delegates.

King and Queen of Football

After the Home-coming game in which the Blue Demons met the Dublin Dukes, the Monogram Club sponsored a Dance.

By popular vote of the student body and the faculty of C. H. S. a King and Queen was chosen to reign over the annual Dance. Their identity was not revealed until the time of intermission.

At this time, Mr. Evans L. King acted as Master of Ceremonies and presented Miss Nancy Bane and Mr. Rudolph Duncan to the Chairman of the Montgomery County School Board, Mr. Howard Bane, who presented each with a gift and crowned the Queen. This was quite a unique occasion as Mr. Bane's own daughter had been chosen Queen and as he placed the crown on her head he gave her a fatherly kiss. Nancy has the distinction of being the first C. H. S. Home-Coming Queen to receive a kiss as she was crowned.

Nancy has been a Cheerleader for three years and is Head Cheerleader this season and no one could possess more real school spirit than she.

Rudolph has played outstanding football for four years. He served as Co-Captain of baseball this season and also Co-Captain of '52-'53 and '53-'54 football squads.

Miss Farmerette Beauty Pageant

SEPTEMBER 9, 1953

The Junior Woman's Club sponsored the fifth annual Beauty Pageant at the Palace Theater on September 9th, to select Miss Farmerette to reign over the Montgomery County Fair.

Mr. Joe Guthridge acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Miss Lockie Jo Nolan, a C. H. S. Senior, placed first as "Miss Farmerette" of 1953.

MAY DAY-1953

"OVER THE RAINBOW"

Nancy Woolwine reigned as Queen of the May with Nancy Bane serving as Maid of Honor on May 8, 1953. Crown bearer was Donald Covey and Corine Lee Charlton was flower girl. Train bearers were Cheryl Thompson and Carolyn Shepherd.

Advancing from both sides of a semi-circle, meeting under a large rainbow, came the procession which consisted of eleven princesses, dressed in dotted swiss rainbow colors and carrying matching nosegays of spring flowers from which rainbow ribbons were streaming.

After the crowning of the Queen by Mr. Evans L. King, the principal, the following program was presented: "The Mexican Waltz" and "Bleking" were the dances given by the girls' gym classes. There followed a tumbling act by the boys' and girls' gym classes. "Strolling Through The Park," "The Desert Song" and "If I Could Tell You" were sung by the Glee Club. The Festival closed with a picturesque Maypole Dance by the members of the Court.

CLASS SONG

Come along and listen, while we tell you of our school days.
They were filled with happiness—this we confess but
Good-bye, classmates, good-bye, we'll be on our ways.
We're the Class of '54—and we're proud to claim it
All our thoughts and memories—will be of you—so
Good-bye, classmates, good-bye—till we meet again.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

About two weeks before final exams we lost one of our number, namely Sue Spence. The carnival came to town and the temptation of becoming a gypsy was just too much for her this time. Due to this startling incident the Senior Class was dismissed from school to enjoy the follies of the carnival. The whole class formed a line which stretched from Sue's tent half-way across the midway.

The first to enter the tent were our latest newlyweds, Nancy and Ray Reed. Sue predicted that Ray will take over the Farm Supply Center to support his fifteen (15) little Reeds.

James Costigan, Larry Stewart, Lloyd Wirt, and Paul Gilmore pushed in front of everybody else so they would have time to ride the Hobby Horses. She said that they would become presidents of four great chain stores.

Sue Plummer, Ginger Bird, Carolyn Francisco, and Betty Hamrick were next in line. When Sue gazed into the future she found it full of basketball. It seemed that these four girls are to become the main factors in the success of the world famous Arkansas Travelers. It appears that Sue and Ginger will coach the team, Betty will be the head manager and Carolyn will be the head cheerleader.

And there go Bill and Jack Waddell into the tent. Bill learned from Sue that he will become Chief Cook and Bottle Washer of Waddells' Restaurant while Jack is busy teaching football fundamentals to his eleven (11) little Waddells.

Jane Knowles charged into the tent making way for Dorothy Woolwine, Mary Blair Slusher, and Erlene Cox to follow. It seems that Jane will have a steady income writing a gossip column in the Montgomery News Messenger, where Dorothy will be assistant editor, Erlene will run the press, and Mary Blair will be head typist.

Agnes Wisely and Clyde Williams didn't have time to find out the future as the preacher was waiting at the Church and they were carrying the wedding bells with them.

Fredona Lawson, Sandra Wrenn, Lois Hall, and Doris Yost were next to enter Sue's domain. She heard music from her crystal ball, and saw chorus girls dancing among them being these four girls.

Billy Chrisman, Richard Keith, Marshall Linkous, and Danny Johnson slipped under the tent so they wouldn't have to wait in line. Sue told Marshall that he would soon be the local Cadillac dealer and Danny will be head of the math department at Harvard University. She told Billy that he would operate a large truck farm and that Richard would be happily married to Mrs. America, 1960.

With much enticement, Zelda Lively and Nancy Bishop were forced off the little airplanes and entered the tent. They were told that they would be members of the secretarial staff of the huge twenty-story Miller Building along with Betty Loar, Nancy Bishop, Eloise Bratton, Peggy Bowman, Nancy Jo Silvers, Anna Bell Hawley, and Betty Morris.

About this time Don Altizer, Joe Stanger, Kenneth Nixon, and Doug Blankenship drove up on a tractor, and the crystal ball clouded up with dirt. As it cleared, she saw that between these four boys three-fourths of the farm land in Virginia was owned.

Sue looked up and saw Janet Akers, Treva Altizer, and Dixie Lee Hall standing before her. The future of these girls was very different. Janet will be a preacher woman; Treva a housewife, and Dixie Lee a head waiter of the largest restaurant in the country.

Earl Hylton and Sonny Silvers were next in line. It seems that they will not have to leave sports when they leave school. They will both be coaches, one at Michigan State and the other at UCLA.

Lockie Jo was queen of the Fair and she came in next with her page, Helen Grubb. Sue told her that she would be Mrs. America of 1960; and Helen will inherit a large estate. Sue told them to tell

THE DEMON '54

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Jo Bennett that she would be happily married and that Mary Edith Hale would be the head reporter of the N. Y. Star.

Billy Childress came running into the tent crying. It seems that the clown was after him and he ran to Sue for protection. While he was there she decided to tell his fortune. He will be private secretary of Bobby Chafin, the new owner of Macy's Department Store in New York.

Sue was waiting for the next person to come into the tent when a strong odor of ether came from the crystal ball. When she realized what it was she called all those who would be working in a hospital into the tent. They were: Ann Shell, who she told would study medicine; Wardie Grayson, who will be a pharmacist; Maxine Creason, Marty Short, and Freda Peregory will be nurses.

We decided to go in next, all but Mike that is; Carole, Jane, and Anna went with us. Sue talked us into joining the carnival, too, so we found our place so we could begin our work the day after graduation. Jane will be the barker for the burlesque; Anna Jane, the tattooed woman, Carole will act as the Wild Woman from Barneo; Nancy will take the proceeds from the gambling joints; and Pat will be the main attraction in the freak show.

Ray Lytton, Tommy Poff, and Curtis Parker were next in line. Sue saw a variety of things in her crystal ball. She saw Ray as manager of the largest drive-in in the West, Tommy Poff an architect, and Curtis Parker a star pitcher for the Yankees.

Jimmy Mensh was walking around acting silly when he tripped and fell into the tent. He was always falling into trouble and this time he really did. Sue told him that he would have 12 kids.

Michael, Allen, J. C., and Don Paul, as usual, slipped in without paying. Mike will be the builder, owner, manager and operator of the twenty-story Miller Building; and on the top floor is his lab where he has invented the new Atomic Pinball Machine. Allen is going to hunt diamonds in Africa for his father's jewelry store; J. C. will get through college in a surprising ten years as everybody expected it to take him twenty as it took him seven to get out of high school; Don Paul it seems will be the captain of one of the best known professional basketball teams in the world.

Next came our talented ones; Wilma Rush found that she would be a famous poet, and Betsy Jones will enter the field of art.

Last, but not least, to enter Sue's domain was Rudolph Duncan. It seems that the government that he took rubbed off on him and he will be an ambassador to Russia. Sue also told him that his fellow classmates Billy Kingrea would be a minister and Don Bennett would be the owner of a large farm known as Blue Ridge Fur Farm.

The day had been a hard one for Sue so she covered up her crystal ball and retired to her tent dreaming of the things she had discovered. As she remembered she felt sure that the Class of '54 would be one of the most successful ever to graduate from good old C. H. S.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1954, do will and bequeath to our friends of the Junior Class our most valued possessions. We sincerely hope that they will use these possessions to the best of their ability and for the betterment of mankind.

I, Richard Keith, being of feeble mind and no brain, do will to Lila Lorton one bottle of CO (carbon monoxide) from my '46 Chevrolet.

I, Anna Bell Hawley, do will and bequeath to Buddy Robinson the needed ability to grasp book-keeping.

I, Jane Carson, being of sound mind, do will and bequeath to Juanita Jennings my dark hair and my forgetful memory.

I, Nancy Bishop, will to Shirley Willis my interest in Studebaker and Oldsmobile cars and I hope she will have as much fun as I have had in them.

I, Nancy Bane, being of no mind and not much body, do will to Tommy Hall all the paint left over from building the new school so he can paint his car and to Freddie Walters I will a new pair of red gym shorts as the ones he has now are almost worn out.

I, Lois Hall, do will and bequeath to Mary Ann Clark my majorette uniform in hopes that she will have as much fun in it as I have had.

I, Betty Morris, will to Vanessa York my interest in Dodge cars with the hope that she will have as much fun as I had.

I, Charles Belcher, being of unsound mind, do hereby bequath to Nelson Matherly, my sour disposition on Monday mornings and my uncanny ability to get in trouble in Solid Geometry Class.

I, Carole Hawley, being of ??? mind do leave to Mollie Miller my old road maps to Blacksburg in case she should forget the route. Also I bequeath to her all the junk in my locker none of which is useful.

I, Lloyd Wirt, will and bequeath to Lynn Adair my '52 Government book and hope she finds time to work crossword puzzles in class as I did.

I, Dixie Lee Hall, being of sound body and wandering mind, will to Earl Alderman two eyes which have the habit of staring into space in English IV, hoping that he can keep them more alert than I ever could.

I, Dorothy Woolwine, with no brains, do hereby will to Shirley Sutphin my ability to play basketball which I never acquired.

I, Betsy Jones, being of weak mind and weak body, do hereby will to Geraldine Beasley my ability to get all the characters in a skit together and keep them together.

I, Lockie Jo Nolen, being of a lot of nothing will to Vicki Ann Dickerson the ability to laugh at being fat and like it.

To Oakley Crawford, I, Hazel Kincaid, being of good character and a most extraordinary mind, will my most prized possession my unusual ability to control my -!o'?? temper in the most trying situations. This ability has never been cultivated to a very large extent, but it is my sincere hope he can do more with it than I ever tried to do.

THE DEMON '54

I, Eloise Bratton, do hereby will to Howard Sayers my ability to talk all period in Study Hall and get caught.

I, Nancy Pettrey, being of big feet and little mind, will to Emily Lindsey my dearly beloved freckles.

I, Wilma Rush, being of patient mind and absolute abilities do hereby will to Sue Campbell, that ability of mine to do everything and yet never be busy doing anything. I hope she gets more done with this ability than I ever did.

I, Clyde Williams, do hereby will to Darlene Whitt, my old football uniform so she may go out on the field with the players instead of watching from the gate.

I, Shirley Gearhart, will to Marie Nunley all my used English, History and Government notebooks in hope she can put them to some use.

I, Mike Miller, being here and that's all, do hereby will and bequeath to Paul Harkrader my old size 11 gym shoes, in hopes that they will last him another 3 years. Also, being as ignorant as I look (if not more so), do will to Dorothy Correll my old fly rod in hopes that she can hook the one feller (Guy Ellett) whom she has had a crush on all of these years.

I, Ann Shell, having a short memory and a long nose, do hereby will and bequeath to Mac Wilkerson my ability to say the wrong thing at the right time and the right thing at the wrong time.

I, Mary Hale, having water on the brain, do hereby will to Nancy Leighton my ability to drive everywhere without a license and not get fined. (I hope.)

I, Peggy Bowman, being of feeble mind and little feet, do will to Charlsie Dowdy my ability to get out of gym every time I get a chance. To Barbara Brumfield, I leave my trait of promising myself one day to go on a diet the next day.

I, Jane Knowles, being brainless (from talking so much), will to Velma Spradling my big mouth which helped me in many ways and was also a trouble maker ????? To Edna Mae Miles, I will some energy to get where she is going more quickly.

I, Maxine Creason, will to Bobby McGuire my hope that he can get through the Senior lockers without getting crushed.

I, Ginger Bird, being of small mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Allen Poff my ability of getting into trouble at all times when I'm least expecting it.

I, Betty Hamrick, being of mind (?), do hereby will to George Turman a zipper for his mouth so Mrs. Tate won't kick him out of 6th period Study Hall.

I, Jean Grubbs, will to Ernestine Stoltz my ability to get along with Mrs. Zirkle, who tried to teach us some Latin.

Josephine Bennett, being of weak mind and sound body, wills to Judy Chrisman the privilege of taking D. E. and not having but three subjects a day.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Billy Childress, short of brains and with lots of muddy water, leave to Tommy Word a hope that he will do much better on the tests of Mrs. Zirkle than I ever did.

I, Zelda Lively, being of ?????? mind and all that goes with it, do hereby will to Lois Altizer my position on the basketball team (bench warmer) in hopes that the bench will be softer in years to come.

I, Sue Plummer, being of small head and big feet do will to Doris Epperly my No. "7" basketball uniform in hopes it gives her as much service as it has me these past three years. To Bill Gill I leave my ability to get along with the opposite sex (as I have succeeded so well.)

I, Erlene Cox, do hereby will to Naomi Stump my nickname "Red" in hopes that she can take it as a nickname better than I did.

I, Curtis Parker, being of strong mind (!!!) and body, hereby wish to leave Gene Woolwine my old football jersey (78) in hopes he will sew up all the holes in it. I also hope he will be as proud of the colors (blue and gold) as I have been.

I, Agnes Wiseley, do hereby will to Winston Underwood, my ability to type ?? (errors and all) in hopes he can get more c w p m (correct words per minute) than I have which hasn't been very many.

Marty Short leaves Cecil Chandler her brain and hopes he puts it to better use than she has.

I, Treva Altizer, being a red head with a strong body and weak mind, do hereby will to Breck Correll my ability to sleep through government class.

I, Douglas Blankenship, being of sound mind, will to Jimmy Woolwine my ability to thumb a ride home after basketball practice.

I, Carolyn Francisco, being of somewhat sound mind and somewhat body, to hereby will to Barbara Jesse a bottle of peroxide, knowing that she will make good use of it.

I, Anna Huff, being of ?????? mind, do hereby will to David Gray, the ability to "skip" all six classes any time he may wish without having to go to one class a day as I did.

I, Allen Dixon, being of weak mind and strong back, do hereby will and bequeath to Jerry Wakeman my place in the Beta Club.

I, Betty Loar, will to Orlin Collins the easy chair the Senior Class left me in hopes that he gets better use of it than I did. Also to Virginia Gerald my ability to wear a big time piece half-way up my arm and never have the correct time.

I, Pat Blount, being of great sound but little mind, do bequeath to Tommy Astin my Solid Geometry answer book which I ordered from New York hoping that he won't have to make as many excuses to Mrs. McKee for having it as I did.

To Scottie Blair and Benny McKensie, we leave the "smooch corner" in the downstairs hall.

I, Donald Bennett, being of not much of anything, will to Barbara Hardy my dimples.

I, Janet Akers, will to Erma Hixon the ability to play basketball which I never could do.

I, Wardie Grayson, being of sound mind and strong body, hereby will to Woody Shortt my ability to make "A" in Solid Geometry class.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Sue Spense, having many brains but little sense do will to Freda Peregoy my ability to act in the dramatics club plays.

To Emma Waddell, Betty Underwood, Don Harkrader, and Lee Hollansworth, we leave one helicopter to ascend to the crowded locker room.

To Cecelia Spradling, we leave more knowledge although we know she doesn't need it.

To Pete Scarborough, we leave all the left over chemicals from chemistry class, in hopes that he will not have too much trouble in finding the formula for firecrackers.

To John Gray and Jack Trump, we leave $5.00 to buy gas so they may bring more girls back from lunch period.

To Stanley Long and Leroy Woolwine, we leave all the encyclopedias in the library.

To Wayne Thornton, we leave a new pair of crutches.

To Philip Brookner and Donald Lee Sowers, we leave the ability to be successful farmers.

To Joyce Akers, we leave a place on the basketball team.

To Rita Linkous, we leave a one-way ticket to Blacksburg.

To Jeanette Shepherd and Trudy Simpkins, we leave a new sewing machine for the F. H. A.

To James Moran and John Bowyer, we leave an electric razor.

To Shirley Keith and Kathleen Thompson, we leave the seats beside Mrs. Zirkle's desk in English class.

To Faye Cox, Barbara Moran, and Thelma Nolen, we leave our battered and worn-out copies of "Pride and Prejudice."

To Kenneth Akers and Kenneth Spangler, we leave the seats in Mr. King's office that the Seniors have almost worn out.

To Shirley Underwood and Nancy Linkous, we leave a license to teach in hopes that they will not go crazy in the process.

And last but not least, we leave to Richard Hollansworth and James Miles, the spirit of the Senior Class of 1954.

The Parties of the First Part in the presence of the Undersigned Witnesses do grant all the above possessions to the Parties of the Second Part and to this Our Last Will and Testament do set our Seal.

FINIS

We, the members of THE DEMON staff sincerely hope that, through the medium of this Yearbook, we have given a true picture of the PROGRESS IN EDUCATION; both in the Physical Plants and the School Events during the 1953-54 session.

As Lord Byron said, "The best of the prophets of the Future is the Past."

Those Christiansburg Schools of the past have left us a splendid heritage. Just so, we shall cast a Shadow into the Future.
